

Contact: Kate Lattimore Norris
kate@pavlikandassociates.com
817-332-2972

SAME KIND OF DIFFERENT AS ME BOOSTS SENSITIVITY AS MOVIE TO BE RELEASED

Delve deeper into the compelling story of Denver Moore in the blockbuster motion picture, Same Kind of Different as Me, being released by Paramount pictures in mid-October. Check out The Cabin Record Co. album release, Makin' a Difference, featuring the single, Same Kind of Different as Me performed by Grammy contending artist, Katy Gaby. The album tells Denver Moore's story in his own voice and features rare recordings of him "preachin' and singin'."

Chuck Ebert, founder and CEO of The Cabin Record Co. and Axon Entertainment, is the GRAMMY award-winning producer and eight-time nominee who worked personally with Moore for years before his death in 2012 and narrated the album. The song that carries the same title as the movie documents the extraordinary power of friendship and love. The song, Same Kind of Different as Me, captures the essence of how a homeless man and a wealthy man could connect and become friends through an unforgettable woman," says Ebert.

"He was a man who was truly dealt the worst hand in life. Yet, he still managed to always help people. He also had a great sense of humor. We laughed so much when we were together. Denver was truly a close friend."* – Chuck Ebert, Grammy award-winner and eight-time nominee.

The song was co-written by Ebert and his wife, both of whom say they are blessed to have known Moore. Based on the story of a friendship between Moore, a former slave who worked in his youth on a plantation in Red River Parish and was a prisoner for 10 years in Angola Prison (Louisiana State Penitentiary, also known as the Alcatraz of the South), and Ron Hall, a wealthy international art dealer, the song tackles centuries old race and economic inequality issues in a modern context.

Individual songs and the entire album are available for purchase directly from Axon Entertainment at www.AxonEntertainment.com. Hear Same Kind of Different as Me on Katy Gaby's latest release, To Hymn Be the Glory. It is available on iTunes, Spotify, Amazon, YouTube, Facebook, Beats Music, CD Baby, and radio everywhere.